

Letter of Authority for Seniors Energy Rebate

A letter of authority is a legal document that authorises a third party to act on your behalf. Both you and the third party (Authorised Agent) will need to complete this letter of authority.

Eligibility

You may complete a letter of authority if you are unable to attend a Service Centre to apply for your Seniors Energy Rebate and wish to authorise a third party (Authorised Agent), to apply on your behalf.

Identity requirements

You MUST provide proof of identity of yourself and your Authorised Agent by supplying certified copies from the list below. Your name should be the same on both documents and must be current if they display an expiration date.

One Identity document from this list:

- NSW Driver Licence
- Australian passport, Birth Certificate or interstate Driver licence
- NSW Photo card (Authorised Agents only)

And one accompanying document from this list:

- Department of Human Service/ Veteran Affairs Card
- Medicare Card
- Credit, debit card (Authorised Agents only)
- Bank Statement (Authorised Agents only)
- Firearms licence (Authorised Agents only)
